CHURCHLESS SUNDAY OCT. 13

Churches Of All Faiths Closed
Likewise Schools, Clubs
Open Air Service.

Sunday, Oct. 13, 1918 will be remembered as a churchless Sunday not only in Cloverport but all through the State and in many other states as well. Owing to the Spanish influenza the churches of all faiths were closed by order of the State Board of Health, consequently there was no public worshiping inside the churches but an open air prayer meeting lasting thirty minutes was conducted by Rev. A. N. Couch and Rev. W. O. Rickard at 10:30 o'clock. Only a few attended it as it was not generally known. In all probability there were many homes where family devotion was observed at the church hour. The day had little social visiting either as this is disapproved by the Board of Health.

Until further notices from the Board the Cloverport Public school will remain closed, likewise the churches, and the women's clubs. The crowds at the post-office during the evening mail have not been allowed to congregate in the lobby of the office as they have done heretofore.

The exact number of "flu" cases is difficult to obtain, but every now and then when one is passing along the residence streets they are liable to see more than one window with "Influenza" cards in them and these were not evident at all last week. While the cases have been genuine, none have been fatal thus far and it is generally believed that the epidemic can be checked to a very great extent in this vicinity.

Why Another?

"You say you love my daughter?"
"Love her my dear, sir! Why, I would die for her. For one soft glance from her lovely eyes I would throw myself from yonder cliff, and perish."
"Indeed! Well, I'm something of a liar myself, and I fancy one is enough in a small family like mine."

MAN WHO FAILS TO BUY BONDS IS BEING FOUND OUT, MARKED

Stigma Will Remain Upon the Slackers
Long After the War
Is Over.

One by one the men who have refused and are refusing to buy Liberty Bonds are being found out. They had an easier time of it when the first two loan drives were under way. The country was not in such deadly earnest about this war as it is now. We were taking for granted that everyone who could would be glad to buy a bond and buy just as many as possible.

People did not look as closely for the button on the coat and for the Liberty Loan flag in the window as they are looking now. The man who walks the streets now without some visible sign and emblem that he is a bond purchaser is followed by eyes that grow angry as they watch him. The house in any neighborhood that is without a bond flag in its window is a marked house. People stare at it curiously. They eye it resentfully.

Won't Be Forgotten.
The bond slacker is a marked man in any community. He is being remembered by his neighbors. Nor will his sins against patriotism and loyalty be soon forgotten. The memories of this war will live a long time. It is always so with wars and what comes after them. He will be pointed out as long as he lives. The memory of his failure and his weakness will be held against his children.

There are some places where the man who fails to buy is being ostracized by his neighbors and his old friends. If they know he is able to buy they are not asking for his reasons. Reasons are not asked. It is sufficient that a man failed when his time came, when the opportunity was offered.

With the whole nation working as it never worked before to raise the most gigantic war loan in all history, the man who does not buy is finding it harder than ever to hide his shortcomings. He is being found out and in the vast majority of cases the proper punishment is being applied by those around him.

LABOR NEEDED TO SAVE CAMP KNOX FOR STATE

Emergency Causes Summary
Notice From Authorities
At Washington.

DRAFT MAY COME IF VOLUNTEERS FAIL.

State-wide Calls Sent Out To Lend Aid For Speeding
Up Work.

State wide calls have gone to save Camp Henry Knox at Stithon for Kentucky. The authorities at Washington have served notice on Kentucky that if they cannot produce the necessary laborers to complete the work at Stithon before cold weather sets in the permanent artillery camp, representing an investment of probably $20,000,000, will be withdrawn from the state entirely.

Immediately upon receipt of these advices the state officials got busy and are sending out calls to all individuals and business organizations, pointing out the emergency and frankly declaring that if Kentucky carpenters and laborers do not volunteer for the work, a forcible draft must be made effective at once on non-essentials industries.

ULTIMATUM ISSUED!

Work at Camp Knox has dragged for lack of men and winter time is now approaching with thousands of the soldiers still in tents at Camp Taylor and West Point. The Ultimatum is that barracks to hold not less than 30,000 men and stables for 15,000 animals must be completed by December 1. It is the belief of the Kentucky authorities that even more is possible and that enough workmen can be secured to erect buildings that will accommodate possibly 50,000 men with stables accommodation for 30,000 animals. This is the present patriotic determination.

Pratt Dale, Federal Director of the United States Employment Service immediately issued a public notice, sent broadcast throughout Kentucky, telling just what the state was up against. He called a meeting of various interests, including John Griffiths & Son Company, builders of the Camp for the government, Major W. H. Radcliffe, constructing quartermaster in charge, and organized an intensive campaign that is destined to reach into every city and hamlet of Kentucky.

AUTHORITY FOR DRAFT.

"Every man and every business organization," said Mr. Dale "must realize that this is an emergency that calls for immediate action. Under the authority given us from Washington if the men in sufficient numbers do not volunteer their services we must draft them from non-essential industries. It is up to the employers of laborers throughout Kentucky immediately to displace men in their employment with women and recommend their employees to enter the service at Camp Knox."

Major W. H. Radcliffe, constructing quartermaster at Camp Knox, has also appealed to the people of Kentucky to volunteer for service. "Every nail you drive," says Major Radcliffe in a ringing message to workmen, "every brick you lay, every bit of real work done will add to the growing loads around the Kaiser's neck. The war won't wait."

WOMEN APPEALED TO.

Women are asked to take a leading part in the campaign for volunteers to prepare the quarters for soldiers. "If it is not your own son who must be housed at Camp Knox this winter," the call reads, "it is the boy of some other mother—all of them training to protect our liberty in the great fight for freedom. Provided the men do not volunteer for this well paid and necessary patriotic work, it is the duty of every loyal Kentucky woman to report them to the nearest United States Employment Service just as they would a Hun spy or an army slacker."

It is to the woman of the state to show the men that it is their duty to volunteer for work at Camp Knox and to take their places during their absence.

All of the organizations interested in the construction of Camp Knox have agreed upon C. C. Quinlan as director of emergency employment and the details of organizing the State and procuring workmen are in his hands.

GREEN TOMATO PICKLES WHICH ARE DIFFERENT

MAKING APPETIZERS FOR RESTRICTED DIETS.

Pickles have their own peculiar place in the menu although they possess little food value. They stimulate the appetite and especially now, when Americans are endeavoring to use and like the various meat substitute dishes in place of the steaks and roasts of other days, play an important part in making the meal an appetizing one.

The following recipes are offered for the benefit of those who have an abundance of green tomatoes from garden or market in the late fall when they must be saved from destruction by frost. In all cases an effort has been made to use corn sirups instead of sugar as far as possible in pickles. The darker and less expensive sirups may be liked equally well.

Green Tomato Pickle.

1 peck green tomatoes, 2 pounds onions,  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint salt, 3 quarts vinegar, 1 pound sugar, or  $\frac{1}{2}$  pound sugar and  $\frac{1}{2}$  pound sirup, 2 tablespoons curry powder 2 tablespoons tumeric, 1 tablespoon ground cinnamon, 1 tablespoon ground allspice, 1 tablespoon mustard.

Chop or slice the tomatoes and onions and sprinkle with the salt and let them stand over night. In the morning drain off the liquid and put the tomatoes and onion in a preserving kettle with a quart of the vinegar and a quart of water. Let the mixture boil for five minutes and then drain. To the drained tomatoes and onion add the spices, sugar, and two quarts of vinegar and then boil for 15 minutes counting from the time they begin to bubble. Put in jars which have been thoroughly scalded in hot water and seal.

One peck of tomatoes should make between three and four quarts of pickles.

Piccalilli or Green Tomato Relish.
2 quarts green tomatoes,  $\frac{1}{4}$  good sized cabbage, 4 large or 5 small onions, 2 red peppers, 1 green pepper, 3 large dill pickles or 3 large cucumbers,  $\frac{1}{4}$  ounce white mustard seed,  $\frac{1}{4}$  ounce black mustard seed,  $\frac{1}{4}$  ounce celery seed,  $\frac{1}{4}$  ounce whole cloves,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon tumeric powder,  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup salt,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar or sirup vinegar to cover.

Chop the vegetables fine; add the cloves, tied in a small piece of cloth, and other spices; cover with  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup salt and let stand over night in bowl or other earthenware dish. Drain off the salt in the morning, and add sugar and enough vinegar to cover. (Mix the vinegar with 1-3 or 1-4 its own measure of water, if the sharpness of a strong vinegar is objectionable.)

Cook the mixture until tender, stirring occasionally to keep from burning. If brown sugar is not procurable imitate its flavor by using granulated sugar or corn sirup, and 1 teaspoon (or more) of caramel.

To make caramel sirup which may be bottled and kept for future use: Brown  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup granulated sugar in a smooth iron skillet, stirring constantly, until it begins to turn black. Add  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup boiling water, stir until all the sugar is dissolved and a smooth, dark thin sirup is obtained, with a somewhat bitter taste.

Chowchow.

2 quarts chopped green tomatoes, 3 pints chopped cabbage, 1 pint chopped (very fine) onions and green peppers,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teacup of dry mustard,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teacup white mustard seed, 1 cup grated horseradish, 1 cup sugar and 1 cup sirup,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup celery seed.

Add 1 cup of salt to each gallon of tomatoes and cabbage and let stand over night. In the morning squeeze dry, stir in all the other ingredients, and cover with cold vinegar. One cup of olive or other oil may be added to 1 quart of chowchow, if desired. Spices may be varied according to pleasure and convenience.

Sweet Spiced Green Tomato Relish.

3 pounds green tomatoes, 2 oranges, 1 quart water, 1 cup sugar and 1 cup sirup,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cups vinegar, 1 lemon,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon tumeric,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon curry powder,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon cinnamon,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon cloves (scant),  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon mustard (scant), 2 small Chili peppers,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon black mustard seed,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon white mustard seed, 1-3 teaspoon cardamom seed,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon paprika.

Cut tomatoes into small pieces, grind finely the orange peel, add 1 quart of water and cook until tomatoes are tender. Add pulp of 2 oranges, and finely shredded peel of  $\frac{1}{4}$  orange, and other ingredients. Cook for about 1 hour. If desired, spices may be varied—tumeric, curry powder, and cardamom may be omitted and  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon ginger used instead, or a little grated horse-radish may be substituted. (Yield of recipe 8 $\frac{1}{2}$  glasses holding 1-3 pint each.)

Note—It is desirable to make tomato jelly and this relish on the same day, as the pulp left from the jelly may be used in the relish instead of buying additional tomatoes and orange peel. Particularly in this case, if the bag is not squeezed much, in draining off the juice for jelly-making; the pulp which remains should not be wasted.

Needed at Stithton.

All of the soldiers at West Point, Ky., and many men at Camp Taylor are living in tents. The cantonment at Stithton now being constructed is largest in United States and by December first under war program must be ready to house and take care of at least thirty thousand men. In addition stables must be constructed for at least fifteen thousand horses. This will be about half of total capacity of camp when completed. Construction of camp is seriously delayed by shortage of labor both skilled and unskilled. Will you not use all influence of your paper to assist us in getting us men to construct this camp? Here is opportunity for men who come under work or fight law to get into essential Government work and at same time be rendering patriotic duty, President of United States has said that industrial army at home necessary to movement of army is equally as important as army abroad. It should also be matter of state pride and it should not be said that Government work has been delayed or must be abandoned on account of men in Kentucky not doing everything that is necessary to carry out Government program. This will be artillery training camp and our soldiers ready to go abroad cannot be sent unless sufficient number of officers are trained to take charge of them. Reports show this to be the healthiest camp in country situated on high point between Louisville and New Orleans on Illinois Central Railroad.

Please do all you can to induce men who are now working on non-essential work to leave and come to Stithton. They can apply to nearest U. S. employment service office.
Major W. H. Radcliffe,
Construction Quartermaster.

VOLUNTEER AS PATRIOTS FOR GOVERNMENT WORK!

Carpenters 60c, Laborers 35c per hour

LODGING FREE

The Government at Washington has called upon the citizens of KENTUCKY at once to furnish the men to build—or lose from the State entirely—the wonderful Camp Henry Knox, at Stithton, designed to be the greatest Artillery Training Camp in the United States.

The credit and good name of the Commonwealth of KENTUCKY must be upheld. And the State MUST NOT lose this great plant, calling for an investment on the part of the United States Government of from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Up to this time the work has lagged for want of men. It is now up to the men of Kentucky to volunteer, or be forced to do so later on. There is no middle course.

TEN THOUSAND WORKMEN MUST COME FORWARD!

CARPENTERS AND LABORERS

Wages are high and are fixed by the Government. Carpenters 60 cents an hour. Laborers 35 cents an hour. Carpenters and laborers work ten hours each day, receiving pay for eleven hours. Saturday afternoon and Sunday work (not compulsory) double pay for carpenters; time and half for laborers.

Free Sleeping quarters provided with new cots and blankets. Meals 30 cents each. Transportation free to laborers and charges are advanced to carpenters from any point in the State.

SANITARY CONDITIONS ARE OF THE BEST

Camp Knox was selected for a permanent site because it is located on the highest point of land on the Illinois Central between Louisville and New Orleans. Camp Knox has one of the best health records in the country.

PATRIOTIC WOMEN OF KENTUCKY

See to it that every able-bodied man in the State, not engaged in other War Industries, volunteers his services at high pay, to help get this great permanent Kentucky camp ready for the brave boys of this Commonwealth and other States, not billeted in tents at Camp Taylor and West Point, so they will not have to suffer the privations of General Washington and the Continental Army at Valley Forge.

If it is not your own son who must be housed at Camp Knox this winter, it is the boy of some other mother—all of them training to protect our Liberty in the great fight for Freedom.

Provided men do not volunteer for this well-paid and necessary patriotic work, it is the duty of every loyal Kentucky woman to report them to the nearest United States Employment Service, just as they would a Hun Spy or an Army Slacker.

Show them their Duty!

Make them Volunteer!

Take their Places!

CAMP KNOX MUST BE READY DECEMBER 1

Before cold weather sets in, barracks at Camp Knox to shelter not less than 30,000 Army Boys, and stables for at least 15,000 animals must be completed. This is imperative.

Full-blooded Kentucky co-operation can complete quarters for not less than 50,000 soldiers and 30,000 animals in that time, if all work together. It is a man-sized job, all right, even for Kentuckians, but it can be done, as Kentuckians never fail in what they undertake.

The fair name of the old Commonwealth—the Fourteenth State to be admitted in the Union—is at stake in the National Capitol and before the Country at large.

EMPLOYERS—NOTICE—IMPORTANT

If your work is non-essential, give up some of your men at once and advise them to go to Camp Knox. If the call for Volunteers is not heeded you may be required to shut down completely. We do not wish to do this by compulsion.

This is no time for shilly-shallying. We must have ACTION. The work is Vital. It is Imperative.

Be a Volunteer and Go at Once!

MEN, MEN AND MORE MEN TO SAVE KENTUCKY!

This is an EMERGENCY necessitating drastic action if the call for volunteers is not heeded.

When the order came from Washington telling what Kentucky had to do to save Camp Knox for the State, Federal Director Pratt Dale, of the United States Employment Service for Kentucky, immediately held a War Council of affiliated interests, composed of Major W. H. Radcliffe, Constructing Quartermaster at Stithton; John Griffiths & Son Company, builders of Camp Knox for the Government, and O. L. Taylor, District Organizer of Kentucky, United States Public Service Reserve; Edward W. Hines, State Chairman, State Council of Defence. Determined action was decided on. All Government agencies will be invoked to secure the necessary men.

Let the word go out broadcast of Kentucky's need of men in this greatest of humanitarian war works—housing our soldiers.

Let it go out at once.

Preach it from the Pulpit.

Shout the need from the housetops.

Organize the Workers at once—and report them to your nearest United States Employment Service or to your County Chairman, United States Public Service Reserve.

IT CAN BE DONE WITH YOUR HELP

THE ANSWER.

Perhaps no document proceeding from the President's capable intellects has ever gone so swiftly to the heart of the question or disposed with such candid and yet subtle dialectic skill of a dangerously plausible trick of the enemy's diplomacy as his reply yesterday, through Mr. Lansing, to Prince Maximilian's peace proposals.

Ten thousand words of amplification could add naught to this incomparably effective response. It argues nothing, it promises nothing, but serenely and without the least bluster of rhetorical phrase it hamstring the Kaiser's stalking horse.

"We are ready to accept your well known terms of peace as the basis of negotiation," said Prince Maximilian. "Do you mean that you accept those well known terms?" replies the President.

"We propose an armistice while the negotiations are going on," said Prince Maximilian. "There can be no armistice," replies the President, "while you have invaded."

"We are ready for parley with a view to peace," said Prince Maximilian. "Of whom are you speaking?" replies the President. "It is vital that we should know whether we are parleying with German people or with the criminals who involved the civilized world in this awful war. With them, devoid of honor, as I have remarked before, we have no common language and can have no thought in common."

That is all, but it is enough; and it is as incontrovertible in its majestic simplicity as the laws governing the movements of the heavenly bodies, and as beautiful as the American flag. —New York Sun.

THINK

THINK of the colonel of a Yankee regiment who led his boys into the attack, and who, when he found one of them in trouble with his machine gun, fixed it and fired it with his own hands. THINK of the sergeant who dropped as his platoon was rushing a deadly woods. He called out as he died: "They've got me, boys! Go on and give them hell!"

THINK of the Signal Corps men crouching low while the shells tore down their telephone wires, and rushing out to repair them while the shelling was still at its height.

THINK of little Corporal Jerry—submitting with ill-concealed impatience while his pal from the Hospital Corps dressed a wound in his forehead. He was bandaged so that all you could see of his head was half of his left eye, and he was put down by the roadside to wait his turn back in the ambulance. A moment later a Lieutenant caught him stealing away, rifle in hand. "Just ten minutes," he begged, "just ten minutes. I haven't killed one yet and I must. Just ten minutes."

THINK of another wounded man who escaped from the dressing station and was later found unconscious on the road. It was the road leading into the battle.

THINK of the doughboy found dead on the battlefield of the Marne, who scrawled "For God and Country" on his gas mask before he died.

THINK of these men, think of all their brothers in the great army of grit, think—and go deep into your pocket for the—

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN.

The above was copied from one of the Liberty Loan posters and is self explanatory.

Kentucky is facing crucial moments in its history right now in its effort to get the great army camp at Stithon completed before Dec. 1. Elsewhere in this issue of The Breckenridge News is a page ad calling for men to volunteer their services in building Camp Knox, and unless enough men do volunteer, they will be drafted or else Kentucky will loose the right of having the camp.

We should dislike very much to see Kentucky fail in this magnanimous undertaking and it should not be necessary at all to draft the men to work when there are plenty of them who are holding "white collar" jobs and whose places could be taken by women. Then as the farmers complete their work of harvesting the crops and sowing the fall wheat, and if they are not large stock owners, they too can join the ranks of carpenters and help complete Camp Knox. It is imperative that the soldiers on the Artillery Range abandon their tents before cold weather and it is for us to see that they do get into their quarters and are made comfortable for the winter.

In the passing away of Governor James B. McCreary, Kentucky is losing another one of its statesmen. He was twice Governor of the State, a speaker of the House and a member of Congress. A politician who was dependable, honest and fearless and represented his people in a most creditable manner.

Your 4 per cent bonds are not convertible into 4 1/4 per cent bonds after Nov 9. Better have them converted now if you haven't already.

Cloverport has not quite made up its quota for Liberty Bonds Sales of the fourth issue, nor has Breckinridge county. If you will stop and read, "Think" which heads this column, you will not let your town or county fall short of doing its duty.

FARM AND STOCK.

J. D. Seaton, the Real Estate man of this city sold the W. N. Pate farm near Hardinsburg to T. L. Thresher of Lewisport, for $14,000. This is the third farm Mr. Seaton has sold for Mr. Pate making him good money on each sale besides pleasing the other fellows in the trade. If you want to sell your farm list it with Mr. Seaton.

"Uncle" John Avitt is a live wide-awake progressive farmer. He lives near Lodiburg where the soil produces abundant crops when given the right kind of treatment. Last year he plowed a field of 2 1/2 acres that had been in grass for 15 years. He planted it in tobacco and it brought him $900. The same land he sowed in wheat and it brought him $150. He now has a good stand of clover.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Compton of Robards, Ky., have bought the Wecherington property on the Hill for $800. They will move here about November 1.

David T. Penick and C. C. Brock, Louisville have bought the Thomas Macy farm near Harned for $6,000. Mr. Brock will move his family there some time this fall. Mr. Macy bought Mr. H. T. Driskell's property in Park addition to Hardinsburg. Mr. Driskell bought the late Mrs. Emma Skillman property in this city and will move here as soon as he can get possession.

William Hall of Webster sold a yearling mule for $100. Mr. Hall is 77 years old and recently cut 250 sticks of tobacco in one day. He is a very active man for his age and does a full days work on his farm every day.

J. V. StClair of Webster, cut and housed six acres of fine Burley tobacco and refused an offer of $30 round for it. His nephew Gorman StClair raised 3 acres of Burley for which he turned down an offer of $1200. He also raised 800 bushels of corn. His farm is a small one only 45 acres. He bought it last fall for $1100.

A few crops of tobacco have been sold in Woodford county at an average of $40 and 45.

The tobacco crop over the state is reported to be a very indifferent crop on account of being cut early and too green. In spite of the condition it is in, the growers are expecting a very much higher price than they received for last season's crop. Everything points to bumper prices for the present crop.

There was a good crowd in Hardinsburg the first day of Circuit Court. Mules were in good demand and brought fairly good prices, especially aged mules. Good young mules were wanted but very few on the market. The Robertson-Howard Mule Company did a good business in their newly improved barn.

The Food Administration has fixed a minimum price of $15.50 for hogs farrowed this fall. This does not bar a higher price but insures that the price will not go lower than $15.50.

Sixteen counties have voted the 20 cent road tax. They are as follows: Fulton, Livingston, McCreary, Letcher, Pike, Martin, Owsley, Wolfe, Estell, Nelson, Shelby, Franklin, Henry, Owen, Grant and Carroll.

The Department of Agriculture places the number of horses in the U. S. at the present time at 21,563,000. The number of horse shoes shipped to France during the past three years, for the horses and mules for the war is 59,000,000.

The average prices of live stock on the Chicago market last week were cattle, $15; hogs, $19.95; sheep, $11; lambs, $15.25. On corresponding week of 1917 the averages were: cattle, $12.30; hogs, $18.90; sheep, $11.90 and lambs, $18.

Jesse Seaton and brother, E. J. Seaton are building a fine barn on the Skillman farm near Webster. Mr. Sidney Woosley who is renting this farm has an excellent crop of Burley tobacco. The leaves measure 23 inches wide and 40 inches long. Another attractive thing on this place is the little foxes. The Seaton's work 12 hours a day then run foxes all night. Mr. Woosley also has 500 White Leghorn chickens.

The farmers of McQuady will open Co-operation Store in the near future. Twenty-three farmers have subscribed for $10,000 worth of stock, selling at $12 a share. The goods will be sold on a 4 per cent margin, and all produce bought at 4 per cent. Since the above was put in type the amount of stock subscribed runs up to over $16,000.

Farmers of Breckinridge should put their crop profits into the Fourth Liberty Loan. It not only takes food for the world, but money too, to make it entirely safe to live in.

DRIVE ENEMY ON WHOLE FRONT IN CHAMPAGNE

French Penetrate Town of Vouziers and Hold Line of Retourne.

CROWN PRINCE IN FLIGHT

British Advance North of Senisee and Are Only Two Miles From Douai—Germany Is Near Great Disaster.

Paris, Oct. 14.—Continued progress was made by the French troops along the entire Champagne front, the war office announced. The French have penetrated the important railway town of Vouziers.

The French are holding the general line of the Retourne and the road from Pauvres to Vouziers.

London, Oct. 14.—British forces continued their advance north of the Senisee river, Field Marshal Haig announced. The advance is in the direction of Douai. The villages of Hamel, Brebieres, less than three miles from Douai, and Cuincy, less than two miles from Douai, have been captured.

Farther north the British have pushed east of Henin-Lietard, northwest of Douai, and they are in the environs of Ennuy.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The German crown prince has moved his headquarters from Mezieres in hot haste.

Suippe River Lines Collapse.

The German lines along the Suippe river, in the Champagne sector in France, have collapsed. Progress made by the French during the last day in this part of the battle front would seem to indicate that the enemy's retreat northward is more of a flight than an orderly retirement.

French forces are reported to have reached the Retourne river between Houdillecourt and Sault-St. Remy. Houdillecourt is less than four miles east of Neufchâtel, one of the principal German bases back of the Champagne front. This advance brings the French up to within 2 1/2 miles of the Aisne river and threatens the railroad line that parallels that stream. Farther east the French have not advanced so swiftly, but have made good progress.

Gouraud's Men Sweep Forward.

Near the Argonne forest General Gouraud's men have swept northward and are before Vouziers, an important railroad junction. They are near Sugny and have almost reached Marchault.

French and Italians have moved rapidly along the Chemin des Dames and northward from the Aisne. They have reached the vicinity of Ailles, which is on the crest of the ridge between the Ailette and the Aisne, southeast of Laon.

Blazing villages in the valley of the Oise are reported in the official statement of the French war office issued last evening. This refers to the section in the vicinity of La Fere. Those fires are looked upon as evidence that the enemy is preparing to abandon that region as well as the high, wooded massif of St. Gobain, to the south.

Americans Moving Eastward.

East of St. Quentin and Cambrai the French, British and Americans are still moving eastward, but their advance is being retarded by German rear guards, left for the purpose of covering the retreat of the main bodies of troops. The allies' progress, however, appears to be rapid enough to threaten serious results to the German armies to the south, which are also menaced by the collapse of the enemy lines in the Champagne sector.

Between Lens and Douai the British are sweeping forward over a wide front and have moved to within striking distance of Douai and Lille.

From the Argonne forest eastward to the high ground east of the Meuse the American army that has broken the Kriemhilde line during the fighting of the last few days is continuing its blows at the enemy. New progress has been made near Grandpre. Farther east the village of Romagne is now close to the American line, and fierce fighting has been going on there. German resistance there has been desperate and the fighting east of the Meuse has also been of the most strenuous character.

Important Events Expected.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The Americans are closing on Dun sur Meuse, while their left wing is within five miles of Buzancy, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris. Continuing, he says that important events which will change the entire face of things may be expected in this part of the Woivre front.

BUY ANOTHER BOND
EVEN IF YOU MUST
MORTGAGE FUTURE

CAMPAIGN DRAWING TO A CLOSE
AND ITS SUCCESS IS VITALLY NECESSARY.

GERMANY NOT YET LICKED

Never a Time in Course of War When Need of Support Was So Great.

The windup of the Fourth Liberty Loan is coming. The last efforts are being made all over the country by the army of solicitors. It is vitally necessary that the loan be subscribed. American dollars of the preceding Liberty Loans have made possible the smashing victories on the western front.

With Bulgaria out of the war and the Allies in the Balkans threatening the very life of the Austrian Empire and threatening to put the Germanic allies out of the war, it is vital that the war aims of this country be supported.

For the war is not yet over. There is still a great and practically unbroken German army that must be shattered before the free nations of the earth will be left in peace. There is still the German conquests in Russia to wipe out before the world can be freed of the danger of a greater Prussian Empire being formed to again strike at the world.

Huns' Home Untouched. It must be remembered that thus far the German has not had the war brought to his home territory. Germany has been virtually untouched by the war. The German is still dreaming of victory, no matter what the propaganda sent out from Berlin by way of Holland and Switzerland is saying. He would like to lull the Allies, and particularly the Americans, into the belief that he is beaten. The plain truth is that he is not.

War takes money. More and more money must be raised if the Hun is to be finally smashed, if his defenses are to be broken and if he is to be hurled back into his own country. In order to insure this, buy another bond. It will take every dollar that can possibly be raised this time to meet and to oversubscribe the greatest loan this or any other nation has ever made. If you haven't bought all you can possibly buy and pledged your credit into the future for months you haven't done all that you can do and, as an American, all that you ought to do.

Buy Another Bond. It will only bring victory just a little nearer and shorten the war by just so much.

Make it a personal matter with yourself and with no one else. Decide for yourself in all honesty whether or not you can buy one more bond.

There has never been a time in the course of the war when the need was as great as it is now. If you can lay hands on the money, if you can see where you can save it in the next few months, mortgage your future and buy another bond.

GIRLS ARMED TO TEETH
GUARD FLORIDA COAST

Patrol Was Started Because of Many Pro-Germans Scattered There.

Silhouetted against a pitch black sky and cold white stars, a human figure on horseback mounted to the crest of a hill. Off to the west the sea swished and tossed, playing a bass to the forest tenor. Strapped to the saddle, and within easy reach, was a rifle. The figure pulled night glasses from a case and looked long and carefully in all directions. The glasses were put back, and the horse ambled out of sight.

Midnight, and many miles away from the crest where the first figure was to be seen, a second figure on horseback met the first. Greetings were exchanged in low, girlish tones. The first figure yawned, turned the horse around and went out of sight; the second resumed the patrol.

The figures were those of girl scouts in Florida, who for many months have been patrolling the Florida coast on horseback and fully armed. The patrols were first started when it was realized that there were many pro-Germans in scattered hamlets along the coast, and was continued with renewed vigor when news of the first German submarines off the Atlantic coast was reported.

The many small rivers and inlets of the Florida coast are patrolled regularly, and many cases have been reported of men of known pro-German tendencies following the girl scouts and annoying them. They were promptly put under arrest by the girls at the point of a rifle, and some have been interned for seditious utterances.

The girls are all between the ages of fourteen and twenty, and have rendered valuable assistance to scout patrols of the navy in signalling, reporting suspicious movements of individuals, motorboats and yachts.

Their Epitaph.

"There was the gun, still in position,
and beside it two dead gunners. In front of one lay two dead Huns; in front of the other there were three.
Our fellows had sold out dear, and
held out long, as the heaps of cartridge
shells around the gun showed plainly."

They sold out dear, they held out long. You might write a biography of those two Yankees, fill it with citations
of their sterling conduct, recount the whole story of the short, sharp, bitter encounter northwest of Toul in which they died, and in the end all your fine
words, all your fair-phrased tribute,
could express nothing finer than those two simple statements of fact. They sold out dear, they held out long.

Their epitaph? It was there beside the two bodies, written in those heaps of cartridge shells that had brought five Huns to their doom right at the gun nozzle, and who shall say how many more beyond?

More Dangerous Than War.

It is not always the greatest danger
which is accompanied by the most serious results. A young man from Indiana who had gone through twoscore
battles as an ambulance driver working
close up behind the lines received never so much as a scratch. Later he took a walk in the streets of Padua, Italy, was hit by an automobile and
seriously injured and put out of commission.

In Camp Sheridan.

Corp. Victor Starks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Starks of Cloverport. He enlisted in the army July 13, 1917 when he was eighteen years old. He has been in training at Ft. Thomas, Ft. Benjamin Harrison and Ft. Sheridan, Ill., and he is now in the Artillery Range at Camp Sheridan, Ala.

Dear Father and Mother: Will try and answer your letter that I received some time ago. Was grand to hear from you and that you were well. I am going back to the camp soon. I hear from Fred Hogue, he is getting along fine.

Will have to close. Will write more when I get home. Like to hear from you soon. From your son, Corporal Victor L. Starks, Camp Sheridan, Ala., Co. 7, 67th Inf.

From Sergt. Frank Pate.

Sergt. Frank Pate is the son of Mr. Ed. Pate of this city. He is a member of the Regular Army having enlisted several years ago. He is now in France.

Dear Father and All at Home: I will take pleasure in answering your letter which I received today. I sure was more than glad to hear from you all and know that all are well. This leaves me in the best of health and hope it finds you the same.

Give the enclosed poem, "The Cuckoos" to Mr. Babbage and tell him if he gets to print it in the paper same will be very much appreciated.

Well will have to close for we are going to move tonight and I haven't much time to get my section together. I have 14 horses, 18 men and a big gun and lots of other things to look after so please excuse this short letter will do better next time. Good bye. With love to all, Frank Pate, Battery D, 16th Field Art. A. E. F.

Following is the poem which Sergt. Pate requested to be printed:

THE CUCKOOS.

The cuckoos are a busy crew,
They love to keep me busy too;
They ramble up and down my back,
And use my neck for a race track.
They bite me on the arms and chest,
And in my shirt they make a nest.
They dig their trenches strong and stout,
And it takes many baths to drive them out.

I hunt all through my underwear,
And from my mouth comes forth a prayer!
Oh, how I wish they would only cease

And once more let me sleep in peace.
Fighting Germans is what I crave,
But fighting cuckoos makes me rave.
I'll save them till I find a Boche,
And plant them in his shirt, by gosh!

Sergt. Bernard Lewis

Writes From England.

Sergt. Bernard Lewis who was one of the first Cloverport boys to enlist in the Army Service is now in Southampton, England with the Medical Detachment. Being so far away has not lessened his interest in home nor its people as is plainly read in this letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis.

My Dear Father and Mother: I promised to write you as often as I possibly could I have been busy since my arrival over here that I could not write as often as I would like to of course duty must come first if we want to come out on top.

I had a letter from Wallace last week he is stationed right close to me and said he would come to see me some time soon, I hope he does. He said you sent him my address, why don't you send me a letter? You know I like to hear from home once in awhile. I have been over here almost three months and haven't had a letter as yet so you know I am longing for a letter and if you can send me the Breckenridge News please do so. I am in a different camp now can't tell you which one for it is forbidden by the Censor, on account of a new order issued by the War Department, too much news getting out perhaps some day you will know. I am still in England and in a nice camp, plenty to eat so that makes everything O. K. when we have plenty to eat we should never worry.

I am still well and happy as ever haven't had any sickness since my arrival over seas. So never worry about me if anything happens you will be notified in plenty of time, so please don't worry.

How are all the kids? All O. K. I hope. I would love to see them but no chance until old Bill is wiped off the map.

Have you heard anything of Muriel Morrison yet, is he still alive? I hope he is. I saw the casualty list in New York where he was seriously wounded. I would like to hear from him.

We are having lots of rain here at present has rained for one week every day, of course we don't mind that.

I must close for this time hoping to hear from you soon. Your loving son, Bernard. Army Hospital No. 36 American Regt. Camp, England.

US THE BILLS.

(A poem on a patriotic address delivered on the Fourth Liberty Loan.)

"Over there" the boys are fighting,
With shot and shell and steel;
"Over here" we fight just as bravely,
So even the Huns may feel.

Then send on your bonds and War Stamps,
We'll give till your coffer spills;
Just care for our boys uncle,
And send us back home the bills!

We will give of our hogs and cattle,
We will give of our sheep and grain;
We will plow up our fields, O uncle,
And begin it all over again.

We'll scatter the seed o'er the prairies,
O'er levels and valleys and hills;
While you care for our boys, O uncle,
And send us back home the bills!

Where ever the fight is thickest,
Where ever "Old Glory" unfurls;
We are looking to you, O uncle,
Take care of our boys and girls!

What ever they need of clothing,
Of medicine for their ills;
You will do the square thing uncle,
And send us back home the bills!

Send on your bonds we're ready,
To back up the boys "over there";
We'll work all the day time if need be,
And spend all the nighttime in prayer.

We are pushing "Old Glory" to victory,
And where ever the sight of it thrills;
You must care for our boys, Uncle Samuel,
And send us back home the bills!

ADD TEN YEARS TO MOTHER'S LIFE.

A young sailor at the Pelham training station had just been ordered to pack up and be ready to move with his mates "that afternoon" to duty aboard ship. "My mother was coming to visit me today," he said to a Y. M. C. A. man, "and now I can't see her." The Y. man located the mother outside the camp, arranged a way for her to see her boy and bend through a barbed wire fence to kiss him goodbye. "You've added ten years to my life," she said to the Y. man as she waved her little hand to the boy marching away.

CALLS HUBBY'S JOKE

Answers Letter in French With One in Chinese.

Shortly after arriving in France Lieut. Charles Crayton of Danville, Ill., learned to write French. He felt so enthusiastic over his acquirement, and, knowing his wife could not read it, he wrote her a letter in French. She had it interpreted. Mrs. Crayton then sought the aid of a Celestial who operates a hand laundry there. For her the latter wrote a letter to Lieutenant Crayton in Chinese, which she signed. Whether he succeeded in deciphering it remains a mystery.

UNCLE SAM'S ADVICE ON FLU

U. S. Public Health Service Issues
Official Health Bulletin
on Influenza.

LATEST WORD ON SUBJECT.

Epidemic Probably Not Spanish in Origin—Germ Still Unknown—People Should Guard Against "Droplet Infection"—Surgeon General Blue
Makes Authoritative Statement.

Washington, D. C.—(Special).—Although King Alfonso of Spain was one of the victims of the influenza epidemic in 1893 and again this summer,
Spanish authorities repudiate any claim to influenza as a "Spanish" disease. If the people of this country do not take care the epidemic will become so widespread throughout the United States that soon we shall hear
the disease called "American" influenza.

In response to a request for definite information concerning Spanish influenza, Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the U. S. Public Health Service has authorized the following official interview:

What is Spanish Influenza? Is it something new? Does it come from Spain?

"The disease now occurring in this country and called 'Spanish Influenza'
resembles a very contagious kind of
'cold,' accompanied by fever, pains

Coughs and Sneezes Spread Diseases

As Dangerous as Poison Gas Shells

In the head, eyes, ears, back or other parts of the body and a feeling of severe sickness. In most of the cases the symptoms disappear after three or four days, the patient then rapidly recovering. Some of the patients, however,
develop pneumonia, or inflammation
of the ear, or meningitis, and many of these complicated cases die. Whether this so-called 'Spanish' influenza is identical with the epidemics of influenza of earlier years is not yet known.

Epidemics of influenza have visited this country since 1647. It is interesting to know that this first epidemic
was brought here from Valencia, Spain. Since that time there have been numerous epidemics of the disease. In 1889 and 1890 an epidemic
of influenza, starting somewhere in the Orient, spread first to Russia and thence over practically the entire civilized world. Three years later there was another flare-up of the disease.
Both times the epidemic spread widely over the United States.

"Although the present epidemic is called 'Spanish influenza,' there is no reason to believe that it originated in Spain. Some writers who have studied the question believe that the epidemic
came from the Orient and they call attention to the fact that the Germans
mention the disease as occurring along
the eastern front in the summer and fall of 1917."

How can "Spanish influenza" be recognized?

"There is as yet no certain way in which a single case of 'Spanish influenza' can be recognized. On the other hand, recognition is easy where there is a group of cases. In contrast to the outbreaks of ordinary coughs
and colds, which usually occur in the cold months, epidemics of influenza
may occur at any season of the year.
Thus the present epidemic raged most intensely in Europe in May, June and July. Moreover, in the case of ordinary colds, the general symptoms (fever, pain, depression) are by no means as severe or as sudden in their onset as they are in influenza. Finally, ordinary colds do not spread through the community so rapidly or
so extensively as does influenza.

"In most cases a person taken sick
with influenza feels sick rather suddenly. He feels weak, has pains in the eyes, ears, head or back, and may be sore all over. Many patients feel dizzy, some vomit. Most of the patients complain of feeling chilly, and with this comes a fever in which the temperature rises to 100 to 104. In most cases the pulse remains relatively slow.

"In appearance one is struck by the fact that the patient looks sick. His eyes and the inner side of his eyelids
may be slightly 'bloodshot,' or 'congested,' as the doctors say. There may be running from the nose, or there may be some cough. These signs of a cold may not be marked; nevertheless the patient looks and feels very sick.

"In addition to the appearance and
the symptoms as already described,
examination of the patient's blood may aid the physician in recognizing 'Spanish influenza,' for it has been found that in this disease the number of white corpuscles shows little or no increase above the normal. It is possible that the laboratory investigations

now being made through the National Research Council and the United States Hygienic Laboratory will furnish a more certain way in which individual cases of this disease can be recognized."

What is the course of the disease?
Do people die of it?

"Ordinarily, the fever lasts from three to four days and the patient recovers. But while the proportion of deaths in the present epidemic has generally been low, in some places the outbreak has been severe and deaths
have been numerous. When death occurs it is usually the result of a complication."

What causes the disease and how is it spread?

"Bacteriologists who have studied influenza epidemics in the past have found in many of the cases a very small rod-shaped germ called, after its discoverer, Pfeiffer's bacillus. In other cases of apparently the same kind of disease there were found pneumococci,
the germs of lobar pneumonia. Still others have been caused by strepto-cocci, and by others germs with long names.

"No matter what particular kind of germ causes the epidemic, it is now believed that influenza is always spread from person to person, the germs being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus,
expelled by coughing or sneezing,
forceful talking, and the like by one
who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing, or from careless people who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk.
As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others."

What should be done by those who catch the disease?

"It is very important that every person who becomes sick with influenza
should go home at once and go to bed.
This will help keep away dangerous
complications and will, at the same time, keep the patient from scattering
the disease far and wide. It is highly desirable that no one be allowed to sleep in the same room with the patient. In fact, no one but the nurse should be allowed in the room.

"If there is cough and sputum or running of the eyes and nose, care
should be taken that all such discharges are collected on bits of gauze
or rag or paper napkins and burned.
If the patient complains of fever and headache, he should be given water to drink, a cold compress to the forehead
and a light sponge. Only such medicine should be given as is prescribed by the doctor. It is foolish to ask the druggist to prescribe and may be dangerous to take the so-called 'safe, sure
and harmless' remedies advertised by patent medicine manufacturers.

"If the patient is so situated that he can be attended only by some one who must also look after others in the family, it is advisable that such attendant
wear a wrapper, apron or gown over
the ordinary house clothes while in the sick room and slip this off when leaving to look after the others.

"Nurses and attendants will do well
to guard against breathing in dangerous disease germs by wearing a simple fold of gauze or mask while near the patient."

Will a person who has had influenza
before catch the disease again?

"It is well known that an attack of measles or scarlet fever or smallpox
usually protects a person against another attack of the same disease. This appears not to be true of 'Spanish influenza.' According to newspaper reports the King of Spain suffered an attack of influenza during the epidemic thirty years ago, and was again
stricken during the recent outbreak in Spain."

How can one guard against influenza?

"In guarding against disease of all kinds, it is important that the body be kept strong and able to fight off disease germs. This can be done by having a proper proportion of work, play
and rest, by keeping the body well
clothed, and by eating sufficient wholesome and properly selected food. In connection with diet, it is well to remember that milk is one of the best
all-around foods obtainable for adults
as well as children. So far as a disease like influenza is concerned, health authorities everywhere recognize the very close relation between its spread and overcrowded homes. While it is not always possible, especially in times like the present, to avoid such overcrowding, people should consider the health danger and make every effort to reduce the home overcrowding to a minimum. The value of fresh air through open windows cannot be over emphasized.

"When crowding is unavoidable, as
in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to inhale directly the air breathed out by another person.

"It is especially important to beware of the person who coughs or sneezes without covering his mouth and nose. It also follows that one should keep out of crowds and stuffy places as much as possible, keep homes, offices and workshops well
aired, spend some time out of doors
each day, walk to work if at all practicable—in short, make every possible
effort to breathe as much pure air as possible.

"In all health matters follow the advice of your doctor and obey the regulations of your local and state health
officers."

"Cover up each cough and sneeze,
If you don't you'll spread disease."

COMMUNITIES MAY NAME TANK OR A SHIP TRANSPORT

TWENTY CITIES AND COUNTIES
HAVE CHANCE TO GAIN HON-OR IN LOAN DRIVE.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST

War Department and Emergency Ship-Building Corporation tion Announce Plan.

Ten cities and counties in the Eighth Federal Reserve District may have United States Transports named in their honor and the same number of cities and towns may have Battle
Tanks named for them.

The cities and counties who may participate in the contest that will accord them this honor, must first of all qualify. This qualification is that if a set quota for the sale of Fourth Liberty Bonds has been established,
that quota must be reached.

These contests have been authorized by the War Department and the Emergency Ship-Building Corporation.
States making up the Eighth District
and it is expected that in pairs of
will participate.

Conditions of Contest.

Contest No. 1 is open to all counties
in each State which has raised their quota in dollars. The county that after exceeding its quota rolls up the largest oversubscription will have the honor of naming one of the Battle Tanks. To the county in each State
after its money quota has been subscribed, that has the largest percentage of subscribers according to population, may have the honor of naming
one of the Transport Ships.

To the city in the district, with a population of 50,000 and over which has raised its quota, if it has a fixed amount, that makes the largest percentage above its quota, may name
one of the Battle Tanks. The city, under the same conditions, that has
the largest percentage of its population as bond purchasers, will have the honor of naming one of the Transport Ships.

Contest No. 3 is open to all cities
having a population of 15,000 and under 50,000 that has raised its fixed quota. The city with the largest percentage of sales above its money
quota, will be given the privilege of naming one of the Battle Tanks, while the city having the largest proportion of subscribers according to population
will have the privilege of naming a Transport Ship.

The Final Provisions.

The final contest is for cities between 5,000 and 15,000 population,
that exceed their fixed money quotas.
The largest percentage of sales above
the quota will give that city the privilege of naming a Battle Tank, while the city with the largest number of subscribers, population considered,
will have the privilege of naming the Transport Ship.

Neither the ships nor the tanks
may be named after any individual,
corporation or organization. No city or county may be awarded two of the prizes.

Illustrated bulletins showing the progress of the contest will be issued
much after the plan followed in the
"Over the Top" Contest in the Third Campaign. The counties that are in the lead will be praised, and those in the rear will be "roasted," but always
the remarks should be received in the manner in which they are intended, as mere pleasantries, and to stimulate rivalry between cities and towns.

HONOR EMBLEMS AS STICKERS

To Be Displayed to Show Percentage of Subscriptions Among Employees.

There will be no honor flags distributed to communities, counties or states in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign in the Eighth Federal Reserve District.

Instead, the Honor Emblem of the Fourth Liberty Loan is to be used for display by factories, stores, organizations, etc., to show the percentage of their employees or members which subscribe to the Fourth Liberty Bonds.

The Honor Emblems are printed
showing the percentage: 75 per cent,
and stickers are furnished showing the percentage 80 per cent, 85 per cent and up to 100 per cent. These stickers can be placed on the card over the 75 per cent in accordance with the percentage of employees or members subscribing.

The Honor Emblems are printed on both sides, so that they may be seen
both inside and outside in case of a window display. Samples of the Honor Emblems can be secured from the Publicity Director, who will also supply you with such quantities as you may need of same.

The purpose is to try and get 100
per cent subscriptions from employees
and members of organizations, and to award them with the Honor Emblems
in accordance with the percentage of their results.

U. S. TRANSPORT WRECKED; 364 SOLDIERS LOST

Bodies of 200 Soldiers Washed
Up on the Scotch Coast.

COLLISION DURING A STORM

Twelve Thousand-Ton British Ship
Otranto, Carrying American Troops, Sunk in Crash Between Irish
and Scottish Coasts.

London, Oct. 14.—More than 360
American soldiers were lost on the transport Otranto, sunk in the collision with the steamer Kashmir off
the south Scottish coast. This developed from checking the Otranto's list
at American army headquarters,
where it was found the death roll of soldiers stood at 364 or 366. More than two hundred bodies had been recovered. Many of these were given burial by a party sent from Liverpool.
The discrepancy between the figures
now arrived at and those previously given is due, it was explained, to the confusing of two identification lists.

In the hope of succoring those who succeeded in fighting their way ashore
through the raging surf, a party of eight, including physicians, left here
for a point farther north, whence they embarked this morning for Islay island, carrying clothing, medical and other supplies furnished by the American Red Cross.

It will be a day or two, perhaps,
before news is received of the outcome of the mission.

Transport Dashed to Pieces.

The Otranto after the collision was dashed to pieces on the rocks off the south Scottish coast. The boat went ashore Sunday night south of Saligo
bay, Islay island, an uninhabited section where the coast line in many places rises straight out of the water
to the rocky peaks many feet above.
It was there that most of the victims
also met their death.

The British destroyer Mounsey was the only vessel which made an attempt at rescue in the terrific gale when the Kashmir, another vessel in the convoy
with the Otranto, rammed the Otranto amidships. It took 310 Americans and 206 others into Belfast.

As the destroyer neared the side of the Otranto the men began to jump
thirty to forty feet from its decks.

The more experienced sailors of the crew of the steamer had better success than the soldiers, many of whom had never seen the sea until this trip.

Many Disappear in Ocean.

As the destroyer steered toward the side of the steamer many of the men
leaped too quickly and missed their reckoning and dropped between the boats. Some of these disappeared in the water, but others of them were caught and crushed to death between the boats and the lifeboats which had been lowered to act as buffers. The destroyer was badly battered.

The captain of the destroyer, each time it was brushed away from the side of the Otranto, again would push near enough for many more men to jump to the deck of his vessel. He described as a veritable rain the number of men landing on the destroyer.
Many of those who reached the decks of the vessel suffered broken bones or otherwise were hurt. Those who missed the deck of the destroyer
went to almost instant death.

Four times the battered destroyer
came alongside, and each time the previous scenes were repeated. At the end of the fourth trip it had 310
Americans, 236 of the crew, 30 French sailors, and one British officer on board. The boat was full, and, having done all possible, it started for port.

Thirty Washed From Destroyer.

Even after the survivors had reached the deck of the destroyer
their position continued desperate, for mountainous waves repeatedly broke
over the little vessel, and, according to reports, swept about thirty persons overboard. Others were saved from a similar fate by lashing themselves to tornado tubes and the destroyer's superstructure. For nearly twelve hours
the survivors, all wet through and many badly injured, were exposed to the fury of the wind and the waves
until the destroyer made port.

One of the American troops on board the Otranto pictured the scene
when the vessels collided. Soldiers lined the decks as though on parade,
and at the word of command stood at attention like statues. They never wavered, remaining there in military formation, exemplifying during the crisis the noblest traditions of the army for heroism and discipline. The same thing, the soldier said, applied to the seamen.

Trying to Get Details.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The war department was anxiously trying to get details of the loss of life through the sinking of the transport Otranto. Reports of the loss of life vary and it may be a day or two before exact figures can be arrived at.

Orders Churches Closed.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 14.—All churches were ordered closed here because of the influenza epidemic.

LETTERS from our boys in the trenches and

war work, all bring to us the same message—SEND US NEWS FROM HOME.

World news is all right, but OUR BOYS
want NEWS OF THIS TOWN. They want
the home newspaper. Publishers are prevented from sending their papers free to anyone, even boys in the service. Consequently a national movement has been started by Col. William Boyce Thompson of New York, who is acting as President of the Home Paper Service of America to give the boys what they are calling for. Every community is joining the movement.
Let us see that our boys are not forgotten.

Send to the publisher of this newspaper
whatever amount of money you can—5 cents or $50.00. We will publish a list
each week of those contributing, and the amounts contributed.

Every cent received will be used to send this paper to our boys at the front. If at the end of the war, there is any surplus, it will be turned over to the local Red Cross Committee.

There is no profit in this to the publisher—
even in normal times, subscriptions are not sold at a profit. With war prices prevailing, and the high rate of postage on papers sent to France,
our cost will scarcely be covered by our full subscription price.

Remember that over in France, some brave soldier or sailor from this town—perhaps even some splendid woman working within sound of the guns—is depending on you to "KEEP THE

Fourth Liberty Loan Rally!

Breckinridge County has not done her part in the Fourth Liberty Loan

HAVE YOU DONE YOURS?

BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY is now about $175,000 short of her assessment, not withstanding we are locked in a death grapple with the monster of Militarism. How many SONS have YOU already OVER THERE? How many SONS has YOUR neighbor now engaged in this mighty conflict, and for the sake of HUMANITY?

Breckinridge County is now about $175,000, short of her assessment, not withstanding we are locked in a death grapple with the monster of Militarism. "How many SONS have YOU already OVER THERE? How many SONS has your NEIGHBOR now engaged in this mighty conflict, and for the sake of HUMANITY? What will your answer be, should your own boy when he returns inquire of you, what amount did you invest in Bonds? In what way did you assist in alleviating the suffering of dying humanity? How will your conscience serve you, when you answer these questions and when your son tells you that he saw men, and your neighbors, fall beside him, dying by the thousands? Have you done what you could?

There will be no "SLACKING" in BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY--but there will be speaking at the following places, by the following speakers, as set out below, and the final Rally will be held at Hardinsburg on Friday, October 18th in the Court House yard, and we want everybody in Breckinridge County to attend, if you are a true AMERICAN, and are for America and against GERMANY.
